

Jeff Veteto

Associate Attorney

jeff@fjwright.law

Phone: 214-935-9100

Focusing his practice on business bankruptcy and commercial litigation, Jeff handles complex matters from inception to resolution in state and federal forums. He is routinely involved in all aspects of restructuring and reorganization work, including the representation of debtors, secured creditors, landlords, and third-party purchasers. Jeff has represented a client in a wide range of industries, with a concentration in the following areas of business:

- Real Estate
- Hospitality
- Small Businesses
- Healthcare
- Manufacturing
- Restaurants
- Retail
- Transportation

In his role as an advisor, Jeff works with clients to develop strategies that emphasize intelligent business decisions and optimize financial outcomes.

Publications

- Veteto, Jeff. 2014. Foreign Land Ownership on Mexico's Coasts: The Proposed Amendment to Article 27 of the Mexican Constitution, Law & Bus. Rev. Am. 20(2): 325-333.
- Veteto, Jeff. 2014. Alienability of Allegiance: An International Survey of Economic Citizenship Laws, The International Lawyer 48(1): 79-103.

Education

- J.D., Southern Methodist University School of Law (2015)
 - Hatton W. Sumners Scholar
 - International Law Review, Case Notes & Comments Editor
- B.S., Oklahoma State University (2012), Economics – summa cum laude
 - Spears Scholar Leader

Admissions

- Texas (2015)
- U.S. District Courts Northern, Southern, and Eastern Districts of Texas